

Materials and Supplies Needed
Handouts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Dealing with Unfairness</li> </ul>	Each, 1 copy per child,
Teaching Aids	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Supply of Cookies / Candy</li> <li>Egg, glass of water, salt, tablespoon</li> <li>Softball/bat - Optional</li> <li>poster or smart board with definitions of Fairness and Equality  Equality: the quality or state of being equal; the quality or state of having the same rights, social status, etc.  Fairness: justice or equity in the way people are treated </li> </ul>
Background Information	Lesson Goal(s): Understanding Fairness  Key Understanding: What is fair? Is being fair the same as being equal? Being equal is treating everyone the same. Fairness means treating people according to their needs.
Sources of lesson info and Additional Resources	(Free Spirit Publishing Blog, 2016) https://freespiritpublishingblog.com/2016/02/01/thats-not-fair-teaching-kids-the-difference-between-fair-and-equal/ (Miller, Jaime, 1998) 107 Minute Life Lessons	